CHAIRMAN'S REMARKS

Have you ever wondered why you are still at the bottom of the ladder?

Why he's 'Mister' and you're 'Mate'?

Why you're a 'never was' before you even got to be a 'has been'?

You thought that if you got to work early, didn't answer back and kept a sharp pencil one day you would receive an invitation from the Board of Directors!!

Poor chap - No wonder the office boy keeps flicking you with ink; you'll be an old man before you even get your own pin tray.

Sit back . . . . . look and listen to what you must do to succeed!!

J. K. S.

SYNOPSIS

The story is set mainly in the offices of The World Wide Wicket Co., and follows the hilarious rise to power of Finch a cheeky young window cleaner. With the aid of his pocket manual 'How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying'. He uses the weaknesses of characters like Bud Frump, the President's nephew to make the climb. His motto could be said to be 'It's not what you say but what you don't, that counts.' Of course he meets the girl of his dreams Rosemary Pilkington, but is too shy to let her know.

Rosemary's best friend is Smitty a zany Personal secretary who is in her confidence about the romance.

Mr Biggley, the President of the Company, finds himself increasingly embarrassed by Hedy, the dizzy girl friend he has brought in to the firm. Finch is quick to take advantage of the situation, but finds himself in deep water through his manoeuvring. However luck and ingenuity see him through from one brink of disaster to another, until eventually Mr. Womper the Chairman of the Board, comes onto the scene at the eleventh hour, to save him once again. The devil it seems, takes care of his own.
