Chairmans' Remarks

After our last Music Hall in November 1971, we received many requests from our friends and patrons, to present a similar show.

Although in theatrical ventures the advice and praise from friends should be taken with a grain of salt. Tonights' production is the result of the mutual desire from our audience and the company to "do it again".

This is an entirely new production with the exception of one item, but we have retained our previous style, much of the material is original, although you will hear plenty of old chestnuts.

Our Director is Mr Michael Gibbon, this is his first production for the Society and we welcome the return of Mr Gerald Dowling as our Musical Director. We thank you for coming and hope that you will enjoy yourselves. Enter into the spirit of the occasion and join the Company in singing the well known choruses.

J. E. STEWARD.
